C-TPAT Managing Risk in the Global Supply Chain

U.S. Customs recognizes that a safe and secure supply chain is the most critical part of their work in keeping our country safe. For this reason, Customs is seeking a strong anti-terrorism partnership with the trade community through Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT).

C-TPAT offers trade-related businesses an opportunity to play an active role in the war against terrorism. Through this initiative, Customs is asking businesses to ensure the integrity of their staff and security practices and communicate their security guidelines to their business partners within the worldwide supply chain.

This presentation is a must attend event for importers, carriers, brokers, warehouse operators and manufacturers.

The presenter, Diana Lieber, graduated Suma Cum Laude with degrees in Social Psychology and Human Resources Management. She retired from the Air Force and joined U.S. Customs Service in 1995. She worked at Miami International Airport for five years. She then worked for U.S. Customs and Border Protection as an instructor for five years. She is currently a program officer in the U.S. Customs and Border Protection C-TPAT program.

Reservations not cancelled by noon the day prior to the event will be billed.
You also have the option to send someone in your place if you're unable to attend.
