

2009 Websites for Growth Nomination Form

In celebration of the 2009 Governor's Conference on Rural Development, nominations are being accepted for the 2009 Websites for Growth Award. This designation recognizes communities that have developed effective community websites.

Categories

- Population < 2500
- Population > 2500
- Most Creative
- Best use of Web applications

Please type all responses. Include all information and questions on the nomination form in 10-point or larger font. To nominate your community website or another community website, please fill in the blanks below and complete the following.

Name of Community _____ Pop. _____

URL Address of Community Website _____

Contact Person _____

Address _____

Day Phone (_____) _____ E-mail _____

PART 1: What impact has the website had on your community's economic and community development efforts?

PART 2: In what ways is your community's website used to enhance community and economic development efforts?

Nominations must be received by October 1, 2009 to:

Websites for Growth
Attn: Connie Hancock
University of NE Extension
920 Jackson Street
Sidney, NE 69162
Or
E-mail to chancock1@unl.edu

If you have any questions regarding the nomination process, please contact Connie Hancock, chancock1@unl.edu or Tim O'Brien, tim.obrien@nebraska.gov.

Evaluation criteria includes:

- Visual appeal
- Navigation-Ease of finding information
- Quality of information
- Enhancement of community and economic development efforts
- Impact
- Use of Web 2.0 technologies