Note: That data between 1993-1996 include transshipment activity (i.e., shipments which entered or exited the United States by way of a U.S. Customs port on the northern or southern borders but whose origin or final destination was other than Canada or Mexico). Data beginning with January 1997 do not include transshipment activity. Users should note these differences before comparing figures for 1993-1996 with 1997 and subsequent year data.
